

1. Project Overview

The Spartan Tutoring Online Platform is a web-based application designed to connect students with tutors for personalized online learning sessions. This platform provides a seamless way for students to find qualified tutors based on subjects, availability, and ratings while enabling tutors to manage their schedules and interact with students efficiently. A dedicated system administrator ensures the platform remains secure, functional, and compliant with platform policies.

2. Use-Case Model

3. Database Schema

